

TURTLE MOUNTAIN BAND OF CHIPPEWA INDIANS

TRIBAL COURT

BELCOURT, NORTH DAKOTA

In re: Court Operations Under the Exigent) ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER Circumstances Created by COVID-19)

WHEREAS, the President of the United States has declared a national emergency in response to COVID-19;

WHEREAS, the Governor of North Dakota has declared a state of emergency to coordinate North Dakota's strategy to protect North Dakotan's from COVID-19;

WHEREAS, the Centers of Disease Control and Prevention and other public health authorities have advised taking precautions to reduce the possibility of exposure to the virus and to slow the spread of disease;

NOW THEREFORE, in order to protect public health and in order to reduce the size of public gatherings and reduce unnecessary travel, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that;

1. The Tribal Court will remain open for business, subject to the following limitations.
2. The following persons, including but not limited to federal, tribal and state employees and contractors, shall not enter the Tribal Court:
 - a. Persons who have traveled to any of the following countries within the previous 14 days: China, South Korea, Italy, or Iran.
 - b. Persons who reside or have had close contact with someone who has traveled to one of the countries listed above within the previous 14 days.

- c. Persons who have been asked to self-quarantine by any doctor or other medical provider, hospital, or health agency if they are still within that time of self-quarantine;
- d. Persons who have been diagnosed with, or who have any contact with, anyone who has been diagnosed with COVID-19 unless and until they have completed a quarantine period;
- e. Persons with fever, cough, or shortness of breath, or are presently suffering from an elevated body temperature or chills.

Court Personnel and/or Court Security may question any courthouse visitor to determine whether they fall into any of these categories. Anyone attempting to enter in violation of these safety measures will be denied entry by a Court Official.

3. Effective immediately, all jury trials presently scheduled between March 16, 2020 and April 10, 2020, in Tribal Court are continued. The Court may issue other orders concerning future continuances as necessary and appropriate.
4. All trial-specific deadlines in the afore-referenced criminal cases are continued. All trial-specific deadlines in civil cases remain. Due to the fluid nature of the outbreak and the need for flexibility in responding thereto, counsel may request modification to pleading-related and discovery-related deadlines as needed. Individual judges may continue trial-specific deadlines in civil cases in the exercise of their discretion.
5. Individual judges presiding over criminal proceedings may take such actions consistent with this order as may be lawful and appropriate to ensure the fairness of the proceedings and preserve the rights of the parties.
6. For criminal trials, the Court on its own motion finds that the time of the continuances implemented by this order will be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act, the Turtle Mountain Tribal Constitution Article XIV-Separation of Powers, Judiciary Section 3 Powers (a), the Tribal Code, Title 1 Criminal Procedures and Title 2 Judicial Civil Procedures and the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968 as the Court specifically finds that the ends of justice re served by ordering the continuances and outweigh the best interests of the public and of the criminal defendants under 18 U.S.C. § 3161 (h) (7)(A). Absent further order of the Court or any individual judges, the period of exclusion shall be from March 16, 2020 to April 10, 2020. The Court may extend the period of exclusion as circumstances may warrant.

7. Individual judges may continue to hold hearings, conferences and bench trials in the exercise of their discretion, consistent with this order. Judges may conduct court proceedings by telephone or video conferencing where practical and consistent with the law.
8. Criminal matters before the judges, such as initial appearances, arraignments, detention hearings, and the issuance of search warrants, will continue to take place in the ordinary course.
9. The Tribal Court Clerk's Office will remain open pending further order of the Court. The Courts Receptionists area will be continue to be staffed and other staff may be reached through the Receptionists Desk at 701-477-6121.

The Court will vacate, amend or extend this order no later than April 10, 2020.

Dated this 17th day of March, 2020.
